

POLICY ON USE OF MEETING ROOMS

The Elmhurst Public Library provides meeting rooms for community groups when such use will not interfere with the primary functions of the Library. As a limited public forum, Library meeting room use will not be denied to any person or organization because of race, creed or color. The Library Board subscribes to the tenets of the Library Bill of Rights, which states in part: “Libraries which make exhibit spaces and meeting rooms available to the public they serve should make such facilities available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use.” Use of the meeting room does not constitute library endorsement of the viewpoints expressed by the participants in the programs.

First priority for use of the meeting rooms is given to Library-sponsored meetings or programs. The following groups also may use meeting rooms for cultural, civic, and informal educational purposes:

- Library-related groups
- Elmhurst governmental organizations
- Not-for-profit organizations/corporations (as defined by 805 ILCS 105) comprised mainly of Elmhurst residents
- Non-business related local clubs or organizations comprised mainly of Elmhurst residents (Application form may be required upon initial request to use meeting room.)

In addition, the following may use the meeting rooms for a fee (See Meeting Room regulations):

- Elmhurst businesses holding meetings for current staff.

Meeting rooms may not be used for gatherings of a purely social nature.

In each case, an adult Elmhurst Public Library cardholder must take responsibility for the group’s use of the room by signing a reservation and use agreement. All users are responsible for complying with the provisions of the Americans With Disabilities Act, which require that a meeting or materials at a meeting be provided in an accessible format in response to a request.

All meetings must be open to the public, and groups may not charge admission nor solicit or require donations for their meetings. No products or services may be promoted, solicited or sold except at Library-sponsored events.

Meetings shall not interfere with the public’s use of the Library in any way. Examples of such interference include, but are not limited to, excessive size, noise, activity outside the meeting room, or any other disturbance that violates the Public Conduct Policy. Library administrative staff is authorized to deny use of a meeting room at their sole discretion based on the anticipated availability of parking space at the requested time or other factors which may impair the public’s access to library services.

The Library reserves the right to modify this policy and to cancel any reservation due to unforeseen circumstances. The Library may also cancel a group's reservation(s) if the meeting room policy is violated.

The Library Director is authorized to establish reasonable regulations governing use of the meeting rooms and related fees.

MEETING ROOM REGULATIONS

Reservations:

- Meeting rooms may be reserved only by a person with an Elmhurst Public Library card in good standing. This contact person is responsible for the room. He or she must be present at the library before staff will open the meeting room to the group, and he or she must be present throughout the scheduled meeting. A second responsible party should be designated on the reservation form to ensure the group's access to the room.
- Meeting rooms must be reserved at least one week in advance. The Library will take reservations for the small meeting room starting the first Monday in May for the period September 1 to August 31. The large meeting room, which may be divided into two spaces, may be reserved up to 90 days in advance. Subject to capacity and the availability of staff to assist, groups may reserve the Computer Lab no more than twice a year for training. Reservations may be made for the computer lab no more than 60 days and no less than one week in advance.
- Meeting Room Use Agreement forms must be submitted to the Office Manager through the mail, by fax or in person Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.
- Reservations are not final until confirmed in writing by Library staff.
- Reservations will be taken on a first come, first served basis.
- A group may meet a maximum of 12 times per year in library meeting rooms (September 1-August 31).
- An individual may make a maximum of 12 meeting room reservations per year (September 1 – August 31).
- The contact person should notify the Library of a cancellation as soon as possible but no less than 24 hours in advance. Repeated cancellations or unused reservations (2 or more within a 12-month period) will result in denial of meeting room use.

Fees:

- Library-related groups, Elmhurst governmental organizations, non-profit groups (as defined by 805 ILCS 105) comprised mainly of Elmhurst residents and non-business related local clubs and organizations comprised mainly of Elmhurst residents may use the meeting rooms free of charge.
- Elmhurst businesses will be charged a fee of $50 per hour or portion thereof ($100 for first hour, which includes 30 minutes before and after the meeting for set-up and wrap-up) for meeting room use. Businesses may use the room only for meetings of current staff.
- Any group may use the meeting room sound system and microphones free of charge if requested in advance and subject to availability. If the Library's audio-visual equipment is requested, Library staff must operate this equipment, and a fee of $25 per hour or portion thereof ($50 for first hour, which includes 30 minutes before and after the meeting for set-up and wrap-up) will be charged.
- When applicable, all fees must be received within two weeks after a reservation is confirmed. For meetings which are scheduled less than two weeks in advance, payment must be made at the time of reservation.
